The Y.W.H.A. Camp which is situated in the midst of a most beautiful range of mountains at Lac Brulé, eight miles north of Ste. Agathe, is having a successful season. At present over 65 girls are enjoying the health-building pleasures of camp life. Under the supervision of the councillors, the campers are taking full advantage of the excellent swimming, boating, tennis, hiking and field sports that the camp affords. Too much can not be said of the enthusiastic work of Miss Lucille Roston, the camp-organizer, and of her co-workers, Miss Lil Sher, of Toronto, the medical counselor, Miss Celia Livinson, tennis counselor, and Miss Genevieve Rothschild, the swimming counselor, who are doing all that is possible to make the stay of every girl at camp a memorable one. The programme for last week, in addition to the daily athletic schedule, included a "kiddy party," a mock marriage, three long hikes, an "advertisement" party, and boat trips. At the advertisement party prizes were given for costumes. Miss Rebecca Mendelsohn as "Bon Ami" won the prize for the cleverest costume; little Jean Fleissig, dressed to represent the popular advertisement, "Say It with Flowers," won the prize for the prettiest costume, and a special award was made to Miriam Boyanner and Bella Zahler, the "Campbell Kids." On Saturday night the campers hiked to the shores of Lac Long for a picnic supper, returning "home" for a camp fire and dance. On rainy days the girls gather together in the big barn for stories, music and dancing, or sit quietly in the library to read or write letters. Mrs. E. M. Berliner, Miss Fannie Heillig, Mrs. David Levi, Mrs. A. J. Alexandor and Miss Hulda Alexandor, who have visited the camp from time to time, have been altogether delighted with the wholesomeness of the atmosphere.

Independent Order Sons of Israel

The Independent Order Sons of Israel contemplates producing a noteworthy play and the proceeds that may be realized from this venture are to be contributed to local charity. Members of the Ways and Means Committee will, at an early date, visit New York City with a view of procuring a real Broadway Jewish hit to be staged in the fall season. The Order has always taken a lively interest in communal welfare matters. Its officers are most active and there is no telling to what accomplishments the organization may aspire.

Membership

The membership campaign held during the month of June last proved an overwhelming success. Sixty new members were procured, and it is predicted that before the close of the fiscal year (January, 1924) the Order will have included in its numbers at least one thousand.

The service that it renders to the local Jewish community is noteworthy. There is not a movement affecting the interest of local Jews in which there are not to be found Sons of Israel in prominence. The Orphans received their due when several outings were arranged for their pleasure. The Y.M.H.A. boys received co-operation in their campaign. The Jewish Community Council received the Order's pledge. We all look forward to seeing the Sons of Israel occupying a high position in local communal life.

THE BARON DE HIRSCH BOOK CLUB

The Book Club Inaugurates a Membership Campaign for One Thousand Members

Appeal to Local Young Jewry for Co-operation

The end of next month will see the official opening of the campaign for members by which it is hoped the members' roster will be augmented by one thousand new members. Keen interest is being taken by the ways and means committee to make this campaign a huge success.

Scarcely had the news of this project been announced when a good number volunteered for services. There is every reason for being hopeful as to results.

The Book Club to-day holds an enviable reputation in literary and social circles of Montreal. It has succeeded in inspiring material co-operation from men and women preeminent in literary circles. It has affiliated with it ladies and gentlemen of the highest distinction who are sponsoring the good work of the Club in a most effective manner.

The Club Adds to Its Already Well-Stocked Shelves

The Book Committee is hard at work and recently received instructions from the Board to purchase one hundred latest books. When the Club resumes its activities in the month of September the members will receive delightful surprises in being able to keep well up to date with the doings of the authors. The book shower to follow immediately after the opening will bring many more books.

The chairman of the Speakers' Committee promises to procure the services of the most renowned lecturers. "The members this year," he said, when interviewed, "will be privileged to hear speakers they have never before heard," and in this connection the Book Club is to be placed in a class by itself in being able to inspire the services of men and women distinguished in literary circles. "I would not be surprised," he continued, "to see in a very short time Canadian young Jewry in every large city following suit, in establishing branch Book Clubs. A book club," he added, "is as necessary to a community as air and water are, for it is only through the reading of books that the soul may be nursed. Self-education consists mainly of reading, observation, reflection and conversation."

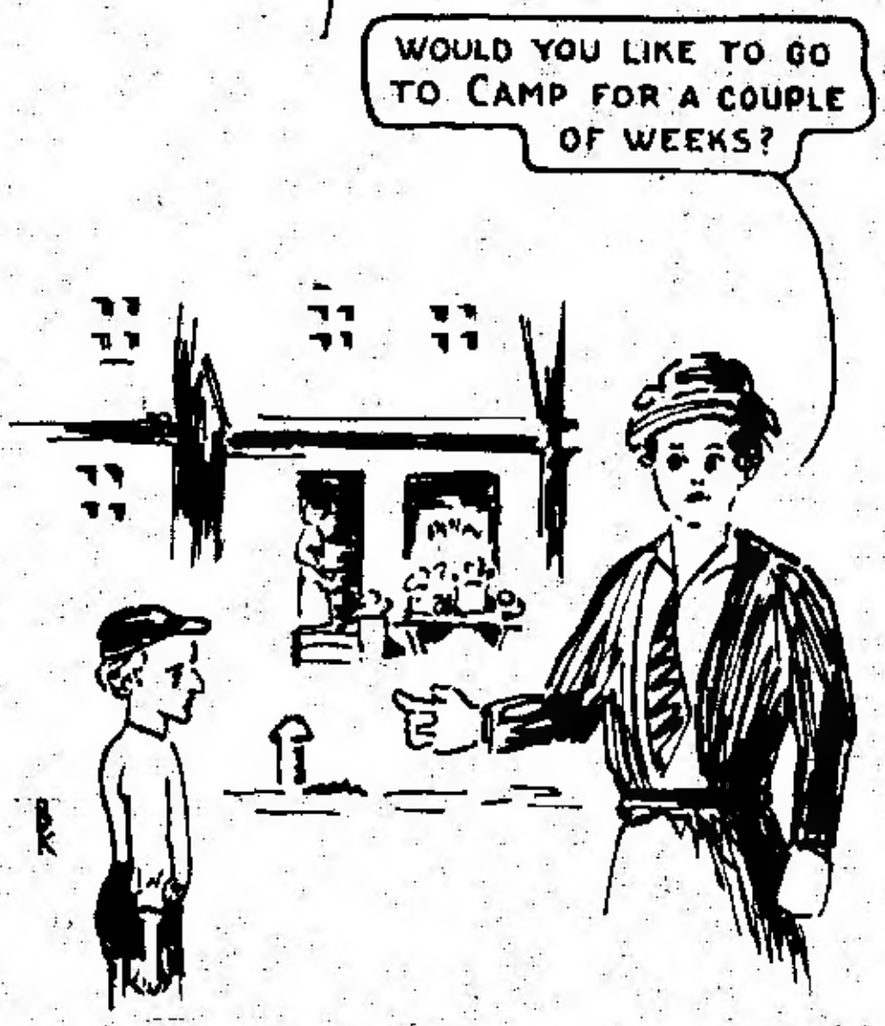
When a "Feller" Needs a Friend



Suppose that you were again a boy and were living in the slums of this big city—it is summer time and the heat is oppressive—what would be more pleasing to you than to have someone spy you on the street and invite you to spend at least two weeks at the Boys' Camp?

Such things happen right along in Toronto, when camp investigators find that parents are unable to give a boy a vacation. In a few days the boy is transported from the slums to the country.

Not only the boy on the street is given the cure—sunshine and fresh air—but the orphan, the undernourished boy, the bad boy, technically called the "juvenile delinquent," the son of the absolute pauper who has not yet been rehabilitated, and numerous other boys are given the sunshine treatment.

There are many such "fellers" who need a friend. Will you be a friend? If so, send your subscription at once to Edmund Scheuer, Esq., Treasurer Boys' Camp, 131 Yonge Street, Toronto.

A Rose to the Living is Worth a Hearseful to the Dead

A rose to a living poor family in the form of a check that will purchase a basket of groceries or clothes is an immensely better way to show reverence to the dead than an expensive bouquet of flowers.

We are not unmindful of the beauty and tenderness flowers convey at a funeral. They speak when the tongue lies dumb on the palate, when the throat is choked, and the tears well up as from a freshet. Yet what a pity it is to see them wither and die so speedily as do ofttimes the dead.

"They have served their purpose," some will say. Indeed they have! But how much better would the check expended for flowers serve if sent to the local Federation of Charities. A card from the Federation to the deceased's family acknowledging receipt of a check sent in lieu of flowers, would cheer and buoy up the broken spirits of the mourners. The thought that in our sorrow we think of those whose lot seems eternally to be that of sorrow, is indeed consoling.

This is the practice in other communities; why not in ours?

Do Christian Employees Discriminate Against Jews?

Of late many complaints have been registered with us which indicates that there is considerable prejudice manifested in Toronto against Jews seeking employment with Christian concerns.

All fares well with the Jewish applicant for a position until the question, "What is your religion or nationality?" is broached. When the applicant replies, "Jewish" or "Hebrew," immediately the pleasant and encouraging countenance of the Christian employer changes to a disconsolate scowl and the answer is given, tersely and decisively in one of two forms, "We will let you know," or "We don't employ Jews." The former reply is generally synonymous with the latter.

We have known of persons well equipped for the positions they sought, who have searched vainly for work in Toronto and finally been compelled to leave for the States where the same sort of prejudice does not exist in any degree comparable to that experienced in Toronto.

It is inconceivable that such narrow prejudice should exist in a city as large as Toronto. This city boasts about its liberality and culture. It would well behove Christian employers who are guilty of prejudice against Jews, to practice a little more of the ethics which the Jew Jesus, whom they call Christ, lived, and died for.

Lloyd George and the Jews

The article on Zionism and the Jews from the pen of Lloyd George, which was syndicated and printed all over the English-speaking world, has literally created a furore. In the simple yet trenchant style which characterizes the public utterances of the greatest living politician to-day, Lloyd George literally gives the anti-Semites of the world "a knock-out blow" from which they will not readily recover.

What he says about Zionism and Palestine is the natural outcome of his religious training and love for the Bible and the Bible land and the Bible people. The English are the only other people who are thoroughly imbued with Biblical lore. It is said of Lloyd George that he followed General Allenby's campaign in Palestine with greater knowledge and interest than he did the European campaign, because he was better acquainted with the names of the villages and hamlets of Palestine than with those of Belgium and France.

The most significant statement in Lloyd George's message is his hope that the Jewish people will not renege in their contract with the League of Nations and Great Britain, to make of Palestine, The Jewish Homeland. England is taking seriously its promise to carry out the Balfour Declaration. It now remains for the Jews of the world to demonstrate that they do also. The Jewish masses, who are poor, are daily demonstrating their responsibility by their generous contributions to the Keren Hayesod.

The pathetic indifference of our rich Jews, on the other hand, is most discouraging. The world can interpret their indifference in one way only—as an attempt to shirk responsibility. Can the rich Jews afford to be stigmatized in this way?

Tolerance

President James Deiry of the National Board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, in his presidential message delivered at the forty-third Convention of the Order in Montreal the other day, condemned the actions of the Ku Klux Klan as anti-Jew, anti-Catholic, anti-Negro and anti-other-foreign-born. He referred to the arrogance of the K.K.K. in questioning the right of any of these classes to enjoy the rights of citizenship. "It is not the Jew or the Negro or the Catholic that is in danger," said he, "but liberty and religious tolerance which are the keystones of government in the United States and Canada."

As a remedy he suggested "that a chair of tolerance should be established in universities throughout the country, supported by public patronage."

We do not think that the suggestion of Mr. Deiry "to establish a chair of tolerance" is quite practical and yet we thoroughly sympathize with the spirit which motivates his suggestion.

It is ignorance, Jew of Christian and Christian of Jew, Catholic of Protestant, and Protestant of Catholic which is primarily to blame for the existence of racial and religious prejudice.

The essayist Lamb was once asked why he hated So-and-So, to which he replied, "Why, because I hardly know him." Or in the words of Lowell, "Folks never understand the folks they hate."

It would be wise for Jew, Catholic and Protestant to get to know one another better. We would all then discover that human nature is at the bottom alike, and that the mere accident of birth doesn't make devils of us all.

The pursuit of prejudices of any kind may be beneficial to a few professional propagandists for whom it is a matter of bread and butter; whereas for the rest of us, prejudice is the work which is gnawing at the heart of a "great nation in the making," and retarding its progress.

We would suggest instead that certain Christian groups talk less about these or those people being "a menace," "a danger," etc., and practice tolerance, sociability and fellowship with those not of their religion, race or particular denomination.

"Sometimes when people censure me,
I tell them without rancour
That for what it cost me to be free
I might have had an anchor."

We have selected our annual pet menace and are about to introduce it with as much grave, tender dignity as though it concerned the Ku Klux Klan or the possible presidency over the United States of Henry Ford, two subjects, which as pet menaces stand pretty high. It has nothing to do with these nor yet with the decay of Judaism nor the destruction of our culture. To talk about the last-named would be to reveal a depressing ignorance and to anticipate the speeches of communal workers which will be poured upon you with the usual superabundance as soon as the fall season opens. And anyway we don't consider these things one-two-three with the menace of flies rejoicing by the billion in certain congested districts of the city where our educators either have failed to penetrate or don't care to.

Our menace is what Dr. Henry Van Dyke, professor of English literature at Princeton University calls "the decline of intelligent conversation in the fierce speed and abominable racket of modern life." We can't decide and leave to Mr. A. Reader (a very prolific gentleman whose letters always get into the waste basket because of the common name he signs) to tell us whether the fierce speed and abominable racket are responsible for the decline of intelligent conversation or vice versa.

There is room for either theory when you consider the few-and-far-between homes one enters where neither husband nor wife is able to lead the plainest sort of intelligent conversation, to say nothing of the stimulating, entertaining sort which has its origin in clear thinking and a knowledge of books and events. Such homes as harbor the quiet, easy flow of good talk are labelled high-brow by the pitiful majority and in the common run of homes conversation., if the helter-skelter stuff really can be called that, consists in gossip or senseless, hectic chatter, high-pitched and designed to compete with the victrola or the shuffle of cards in the strain to break what is socially known as the ice.

And even this kind of talk demands preparation. First separate the men and the women. The latter confine themselves to what their men consider trifles, while the men indulge in such brain-trying subjects as motor cars and the condition of general business. If young they dance and leave all discussion to club or other organization. Meanwhile there happens not only the decline of intelligent conversation but the increase of the unintelligent variety.

Although the menace-finders are agreed that not enough men are studying for the rabbinate and that this is one of our prize afflictions, Rabbi Gerson Levi of Chicago says that what our Judaism needs is not so much more rabbinical students as a learned Jewish laity from which they may come and to which they may return and with which they may counsel intelligently. We say there is no use thinking of a laity such as there was, say, two generations ago, made up of Jews who could discuss the Talmud with their rabbinical leaders. Enough if one can be created to contain people able to exchange ideas and thoughts in a simple, lucid flow of talk, which Dr. Van Dyke calls intelligent conversation.

as merchandise is a misnomer. Can a printed label be compared with an axe, for instance? The label carries a parcel across the continent or around the world, telling each handler from whence to where. The axe is useful too, but only to the immediate user. Printing is direction, information and intelligence. Its appeal is to the educated mind. And do not forget that every educated mind is derived from what printing has taught it.

LITHUANIA'S NEW JEWISH MINISTER ANNOUNCES HIS POLICY

Kowno (J.T.A.)—The appointment of Dr. S. Rosenbaum as Minister for Jewish affairs is a source of gratification to Lithuanian Jewry, especially as there were sinister rumors in circulation recently that the Ministry for Jewish Affairs would be abolished and a ministry of all national minorities established under a German minister.

The Jewish deputies and the Jewish National Council made vigorous representations to the Government against such a policy and on the establishment of the coalition government, M. Galvanowsky invited Dr. Rosenbaum and asked him to take over the Ministry for Jewish Affairs.

In conversation with representatives of the Jewish press, Dr. Rosenbaum said: "The relations between the Lithuanian people and the Jews of the country have recently been strained. My view is that there must be an improvement in this regard. This will be one of my principal aims as a member of the Government. I hope that the Government will strive to make possible the peaceful co-operation of all the nationalities in Lithuania.

"I have never," he proceeded, "had a personal policy. I have always been and will remain subject to the Jewish National Council and the group of Jewish deputies. But I hold firmly that the highest national organ is the conference of Jewish communities, and between the conferences the Jewish National Council elected by them and its executive.

"Our aim must be to safeguard our national rights guaranteed in the constitution and for that purpose Igealize the National Council as the highest organ of our autonomy, and to realize our citizenship rights in the economic sphere."

The new government is a coalition of the Christian Democratic party and the People's Socialist party, under the Premiership of M. Galvanowski, the former premier. The People's Socialist party holds the portfolios of the Interior and of Communications. The rest of the portfolios are held by the Christian democrats.

The Premier is also Minister of Foreign Affairs and for White Russian Affairs.

BALFOUR

A stag was given in honor of Max Donn, former president of the club, on the eve of his marriage to Miss Marion Cohen. Mr. Moscoe, in proposing the toast, pointed out that the Balfours owe their present standing in the city to Mr. Donn.

In responding to the toast, Mr. Donn related his associations with the Balfour Club. In 1919, the club had only ten members. Now it was a strong organization of forty Jewish young men. The Balfours had proved to the people that Jews could also take their places in open competition in all manly sports.

Mr. Bennett, the president, read a letter from Earl Balfour, of England, sending his good wishes to the club. The executive presented the guest of honor with a life membership in the club.

Mr. Dworkin proposed a toast to the club.

ANNOUNCING NEW FEATURE

All letters to the Review Junior Section should be written on one side of the paper only and addressed to Cousin Judith or Cousin David, c/o Canadian Jewish Review, 319 Bay Street, Toronto.

Dear Boys and Girls:

At first we thought we'd see if you could guess who we are, and why, and wherefore, whence and whither? But second thoughts are better, and so in this short letter, we decided to let you all in on the secret. It's really more a plan than a secret. However, here goes: How would like to have a section of the REVIEW all your own? "All your own" means that you can send your stories and poems, jokes and riddles, letters and queries to the REVIEW, and they will be printed on a special Junior Page. It ought to be great fun—especially because there will be letters from boys and girls who live in every province in the Dominion—and it will be tremendously interesting to see whether young Miss Winnipeg has cleverer suggestions than young Mr. Nova Scotia or Mr. Quebec. Because, you see, we want the boys and girls to make the Junior Section their very own, so naturally we'll need ideas, lots of ideas, and then some more ideas from all of you. Cousin Judith and I will be "on the spot," of course, but we'd like to have, oh, ever so many contributing editors. Wouldn't you like to be one?

Cousin Judith and I have some surprises up our sleeves . . . The sleeves had to be specially designed with extra fullness, because the surprises are great big ones! Just watch, look and . . . become a contributor!

We're both wondering which of us will get the heavier bag of mail. Address your letters to Cousin Judith or to Cousin David, CANADIAN JEWISH REVIEW, 319 Bay Street, Toronto, and let's have your ideas on our Junior Section or on anything else that interests you, whether it is radio or rainbow sundaes, tennis or tiddle-de-winks. Until next week,

Cousin David.

P.S. Cousin Judith has a notion that the first letter will be from a girl. I wonder! C'mon, boys!

Cousin David.

BRODSKY, FORMER INDUSTRIAL MAGNATE OF RUSSIA, DEAD IN BERLIN

Berlin (J.T.A.)—Lew Brodsky, prominent Jewish industrial magnate and philanthropist of Kiev, is dead in Berlin, an exile from Russia.

Brodsky was a leading figure in Russia after the collapse of the Czarist régime. He was one of Europe's greatest sugar magnates, operating with his brother, 20 beet mills in different parts of the country.

Among his other industrial achievements was the introduction of the first electric street car system. He was the recipient of many honors from the Czarist government, and was made a member of the Legion d'Honneur of France.

CALLS ANTI-JEWISH ATTACKS "BLOT ON POLAND'S HONOR"

Lwow (J.T.A.)—The President of the Polish Diet, Rzewski, has addressed an open letter denouncing the persons who permit their sons to engage in excessive manifestations against the Jews.

The anti-Jewish excesses are "blots on Poland's honor," Rzewski in his open letter declares.

YIDGESCOM SUSPENDS FOOD SHIPMENTS

Clothing and Money Transfers to be Continued

Moscow (J.T.A.)—Improvement in the food situation in Russia is seen in the announcement that the All-Russian Jewish Relief Committee, briefly known as the "Yidgescom," is liquidating its service abroad for the sale of food parcel drafts to Russia.

The organization, which is dependent in great measure on American support, will maintain intact its service for shipment of clothing parcels and money transfers.

As a result of the curtailment of its activities, the Yidgescom plans a reduction in its personnel, both in American and European branches.

FORD OUT WITH ANOTHER LIBEL AGAINST JEWS

Detroit (J.T.A.)—The charge that English Jews have monopolized the wealth of Mexico, its natural resources and other treasures, is the latest of the anti-Semitic accusations to be made by Henry Ford. He urges the recognition of Mexico by the United States as a means of saving that country from the clutches of the "grasping Jews."

DR. WISE OFFICIATES AT MARRIAGE OF HIS SON

New York (J.T.A.)—Rabbi Stephen S. Wise officiated Thursday at the wedding of his own son, James Waterman Wise, to Louise Jean Hahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hahn, also of New York.

Miss Hahn is a social worker student in the Elkus Home for Young Women at Oakford, N.J. The bridegroom, a student at the Jewish Institute of Religion, is twenty years old. The wedding ceremony was performed at Lake Placid, N.Y.

BRISBANE A RESPECTOR OF BENNY'S FROWESS

New York (J.T.A.)—Pugilistic ability is seen as the antidote for anti-Semitism, in the opinion of Arthur Brisbane. Commenting on the Leonard-Tendler fight in his column in the Hearst papers, entitled "To-day," Brisbane declares that Benny Leonard's ability to defeat any Christian fighter of his class has done more to foster respect for Jews than the entire galaxy of brilliant Jewish authors. "Such is the state of our civilization," is Brisbane's pessimistic conclusion.

BARON HENRI ROTHSCHILD'S SON MARRIED

Paris (J.T.A.)—James de Rothschild, son of Baron Henri, was married Tuesday at the Temple on Rue de la Victoire, to Mlle. Maude, daughter of André Dupont, former Chief Engineer of the French Navy. Chief Rabbi Isaac Levi officiated.

M. Rothschild spent several months in the United States, beginning April last year, during which time he made a study of American banking methods.

MARRIAGES

Mandelbaum—Gordon

A wedding of unusual interest took place at the Goel Tzedek Synagog, University Avenue, when Leah, eldest daughter of Rabbi and Mrs. Jacob Gordon, became the bride of Rabbi Albert Napthtia Mandelbaum of Albany, N.Y. The synagog was lovely with palms, fern and baskets of pink flowers. The canopy was arranged with smilax and twined with pink ribbon and knots of small flowers.

The service was fully choral, and to the strains of the sweet music, the bridal party entered the synagog. The bride, who was given in marriage by her parents, looked charming in a beautiful gown of white crepe romaine with pearl trimmings. Her train fell in graceful folds from her shoulders and her long tulle veil was becomingly arranged in coronet effect of pearls. She carried a shower of bridal roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The bride was attended by her sister Fanny, who was gowned in cherry rose taffeta with silver trimmings, and carried a basket of pink sweet peas. Mr. M. Mandelbaum of Palestine, brother of the groom, was best man. The impressive ceremony was conducted by Rabbi Weinfeld of Toronto, Rabbi Lander of Hamilton, Cantor Seitz and Cantor Zaslavsky, Toronto, and Cantor Tuchman of Albany, N.Y.

After the ceremony, a dinner was given at the banquet hall of the Zionist Institute, which was attended by the immediate family, out-of-town guests, representatives and officials from the various synagogs and organizations.

During the dinner, toasts were proposed to bride and groom. Rabbi Landesman of the Central Relief Committee of New York was toastmaster. Several cablegrams were received, from Haifa to Israel and cables from Palestine, the former home of the groom. A special delegation of twenty-seven from Albany and Baltimore congregations also brought good wishes from their respective synagogs. The delegation consisted of Mr. Louis Segal, Mr. Abraham Solomon, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, Rev. J. M. Tuchman, Mr. Champagne, Mr. J. Morganstern, Mr. and Mrs. D. Pakeman and Mr. and Mrs. A. Cherry, Albany, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerson and daughters and Miss Sadie Bachinsky.

After the dinner, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon. The house was beautifully and artistically decorated with pink flowers, ferns and pink and white streamers. Mrs. Gordon, wearing a black gown with orange trimmings, assisted by Mrs. Gerson of Baltimore, received in place of the bride's mother, who was unable to be present. Mr. and Mrs. Mandelbaum left on a honeymoon trip to Montreal, Quebec and Ottawa. For travelling, the bride wore a navy blue tricotine dress with hat to match. On their return they will reside at 1 Bernard Ave.

London (J.T.A.)—The report of a Palestine Wide Jewish Council will be discussed by the Permanent Mandates Commission of the League of Nations when it meets in June, it is stated in official circles here. The Council was proposed by Sir Herbert Samuel, High Commissioner for Palestine, in his report to the League. The Council would be composed of Jews and Arabs and would act as an advisory body to the High Commissioner.

Rabbi Julius Berger of the Anshe Sholom Congregation has resigned from his present position and accepted the position of Rabbi Jeshurun of Montreal, one of the largest synagogues in the province of Quebec. Rabbi Berger came to Hamilton in 1917 and has been with the Anshe Sholom Congregation ever since. During the six years he has been here he has endeared himself to the hearts of young and old, and everyone will regret his leaving the city. Both Rabbi and Mrs. Berger will be greatly missed. They were both prominent in communal work. They will leave for Montreal the latter part of August.

B.J.S.C.

Some one hundred and fifty members and other guests of the Beth Jacob Social Circle were the guests of the Beth Jacob Social Circle last Wednesday at a picnic held at Wabasso Park. The children were taken to the park in automobiles kindly given by Messrs. Lazier, Goodman, Bernstein and Sutton. There was not a dull moment between the arrival of the cars and their departure. The games and races were eagerly entered into by grown-ups as well as the children. The committee in charge were Messrs. D. Sutton, Ab. Walters, George Goldblatt, Misses F. Kates, J. Levin, Freda Kortsman.

The regular meeting of the Beth Jacob Social Circle was held on Sunday evening, July 29, in the club-rooms of the Circle. The committee appointed to make arrangements for the fourth annual picnic reported that Grimsby Beach had been decided on, and August 6, Civic Holiday, would be the day. Baseball and other sports have been arranged for, also dancing. Members and guests are requested to meet at 9 o'clock Monday morning, at the Terminal Station.

Beth Jacob Doves

By virtue of their victory over Zion Voyagers last Monday, the Beth Jacob Doves earned the right to declare themselves junior church champions. The game was replete with thrills and had the monster crowd which attended, on their toes. Beth Jacob started a slashing drive in the seventh with two out. Brick doubled and five successful hits accounted for four runs. Zion shot their bolt in their half, when they scored three runs; from then on, they were harmless. A feature of the game was the fact that neither pitcher walked a man. Killens in centre for the losers put up a sparkling exhibition. Score by innings:

		R.	H.	E.
Beth Jacob	000100401	6	13	3
Zion	000000300	3	7	6

Batteries—Fenwick and Sutton; Lawson and Langton.

Beth Jacob will hold a practice on Monday evening at Central School grounds, to prepare for the city finals with the winners of the City Junior league. After the practice there will be a meeting in the Beth Jacob club-rooms.

Council

The Council of Jewish Women held a delightful picnic at Wabasso Park on Wednesday afternoon. The girls of the Recreation Centre attended and the members and children of the Council. The games and races were very much enjoyed by the children, who were in charge of Mr. M. Pliskow. The many dainties provided by the ladies for the children were more than appreciated. The committee in charge were Mesdames M. Levy, B. Laing, W. Rosenthal and Belle Cohen.

New York (J.T.A.)—That Lithuania is now "the most oppressed country in the world" and that "it is ruled by the Christian Democratic Party, headed by the Roman Catholic clergy and therefore, pro-Polish, reactionary and anti-Semitic," is the charge made in the New York World, by Casimir Pilenas, former director of political intelligence in Lithuania.

Kowno, he declares, is in the hands of "Jews and officials."

Jerusalem (J.T.A.)—Palestine administration is going in very strongly for a reduction in its expenditures and, as a result of the retrenchment move, many of the less needed employees have been removed from the Government's payroll.

All departments have been instructed to cut their expenditures to the bone, and the revised annual budget which has been prepared, provides for a cut of a quarter of a million pounds, or over a million dollars.

Warsaw (J.T.A.)—An interpellation was submitted the Government in the Sejm by Deputy Zulawski of the Polish Socialist party (P.P.S.), demanding the the reason the authorities have forbidden the Jews of Wohlynia to use publicly the Yiddish language.

Zulawski pointed out that this order was in direct violation of the constitution.

The Deputy's championing of Jewish rights created something of a sensation as it is a rare event in the Polish Sejm to witness a non-Jewish deputy taking up a cudgels for Jewish rights.

It is the first time that a representative of the Polish Socialist party has championed a Jewish cause.

FELIX WARBURG JOINS COMMUNITY TRUST

New York (J.T.A.)—The community trust idea is gaining ground in New York, Felix Warburg and other prominent bankers having joined in sponsoring the trust to administer funds in small or large amounts for general or specific educational and philanthropic objects.

Regarding the opening of the organization, Mr. Warburg said:

"Experience in Cleveland, Boston and elsewhere has indicated that the community trust plan can decrease obsolescence and reduce the waste involved in bequests that have ceased to serve useful purposes. It will tend to make benefactions more effective and less haphazard."

VILLA'S FATHER WAS SPANISH JEW, SAYS MEXICAN WRITER

Mexico City (J.T.A.)—The list of notables of Jewish descent must be further enlarged to make way for another figure—Pancho Villa. According to Miss Esperanz Velazquez Bringas, a young Mexican writer who says she interviewed the late Mexican hero-bandit several months ago, Villa's father was of Spanish-Jewish descent.

The fact was revealed by Miss Bringas two days after Villa's violent death. Villa did not mention his own father, according to the Mexican writer, his father having parted from his Mexican wife while he was at manly. Several years ago Villa met an old man who told the Mexican general that he knew his father, and that his name was "Herman." His mother, Villa indicated, sought to conceal his name as father but used in the name Villa.

Barcelona (J.T.A.)—Militant anarchists have become a considerable and serious problem to the Catalan authorities in Barcelona, according to reports reaching here.

Hooligans have taken advantage of the absence of so many of the police in the fighting on the Aragon front to terrorize the city.

The Socialist leaders of the Generality have appealed to hooligans to desist from their activities. On Friday evening, the anti-Semitic extreme elements of Action, the fascists in Germany, demonstrated the municipal hall and shouting "Death to the Jews." Bombs, the explosion of bombs
